California’s state budget is actually a budget “package.”
The budget package consists of one or more budget bills plus budget-related trailer bills.

There is no limit on the number of trailer bills that may be included.
The 40 Bills in the 2018-19 Budget Package (Through September 2018)

• SB 840: The initial 2018-19 budget bill

The state Constitution sets two budget-related deadlines: January 10 and June 15.
The budget bill and most budget-related bills can be passed by a simple majority vote. (Prop. 25 of 2010)
A supermajority (two-thirds) vote is needed to approve any tax increase. (Prop. 26 of 2010)
Democrats Control More Than Two-Thirds of the Seats in Each House of the Legislature

  — Guarantees a minimum level of funding for K-12 schools and community colleges.

• Prop. 2 (2014):
  — Requires some state revenues to be set aside to pay down debts and save for a rainy day.

• Prop. 55 (2016):
  — Creates a formula to boost funding for Medi-Cal, which provides health care services for low-income residents.
The State Budget Process: Key Players and Timeline
The budget process is cyclical.

Decisions are made throughout the year, both in public settings and behind the scenes.
Navigating the State Budget Process

Each year the Governor and Legislature work to craft the state’s spending plan. While the January-to-June period gets the most attention, the process of developing the budget is an ongoing enterprise, giving Californians ample opportunity to stay engaged and involved year-round.

The Governor
The Governor has the lead role in developing the state budget. Each year the Governor proposes a spending plan, which is introduced as the budget bill in the Legislature. The Governor can sign or veto the budget bill passed by legislators as well as other bills in the budget package that make policy changes related to the budget. The Governor can also reduce or eliminate individual appropriations using the line-item veto.

The Legislature
The Legislature – made up of the Assembly and Senate – reviews the Governor’s proposed budget and crafts its own version of the spending plan. The Legislature can maintain, modify, or reject the Governor’s proposals, with review occurring through each house’s budget committee and related subcommittees. The Legislature must pass the budget bill, but not other bills in the budget package, by June 15. The Legislature can override a Governor’s veto by a two-thirds vote of each house.

The Public
The public has various opportunities for input during the budget process. Members of the public can meet with officials from the Governor’s administration and with legislators and their staffs, testify before budget committees and subcommittees, and write letters of support and opposition. Through individual engagement or as part of coalitions, members of the public can express their budget priorities and areas of concern.

As the Governor’s proposed budget for the next fiscal year is being developed, members of the public can meet with officials from the Governor’s administration to share budget priorities and discuss areas of concern.

Summer to fall is also a good time for members of the public to get to know key legislative staff, educate them on particular issues, and suggest ideas that deserve a hearing in the year ahead.

The public can meet with Governor’s staff and legislative staff to discuss any changes or new proposals in the May Revision. The public can continue to offer comments at legislative hearings, although typically not during the two-house conference committee.
