The state budget expresses our values and priorities.
The state budget = state funds + federal funds.
State Funds Account for Nearly Two-Thirds of California’s State Budget
Total Proposed 2016-17 Expenditures = $262.6 Billion

Federal Funds 35.0%
State General Fund 46.7%
State Bond Funds 1.2%
State Special Funds 17.1%

The state budget supports a range of public services and systems.
More Than 7 in 10 State Dollars Support Health and Human Services or Education

Proposed 2016-17 General Fund and Special Fund Expenditures = $167.6 Billion

The Personal Income Tax Is Projected to Account for Two-Thirds of California’s General Fund Revenues
Projected 2016-17 General Fund Revenues = $123.4 Billion

Note: Reflects total projected General Fund revenues before a $1.3 billion transfer to the state’s rainy day fund as required by Proposition 2, the ballot measure passed by voters in November 2014, and an additional $2 billion transfer proposed by the Governor.

Expiration of Proposition 30’s Personal Income Tax Rate Increases Would Leave Permanent Gap in State Revenues

General Fund Revenues Before Transfers to the Budget Stabilization Account, in Billions

Note: 2015-16 is estimated; 2016-17 onward are projected. Additional revenues for 2018-19 and 2019-20 assume that personal income tax (PIT) revenue growth under an extended Prop. 30 would reflect the Administration’s projected underlying PIT growth rate absent Prop. 30 taxes.

- Assembly Budget Committee and Senate Budget and Fiscal Review Committee:
  - Review the Governor’s proposals and help develop the Legislature’s version of the budget. Committee analyses are released beginning in January.

The “budget package” consists of the budget bill and budget-related bills.
The state Constitution establishes the rules of the budget process.
The state Constitution sets two budget-related deadlines: January 10 and June 15.
The budget bill and most budget-related bills can be passed by a simple majority vote. (Proposition 25 of 2010)
A supermajority (two-thirds) vote is needed to approve any tax increase. (Proposition 26 of 2010)
Proposition 26 added this key phrase to the state Constitution:

“Any change in state statute which results in any taxpayer paying a higher tax” requires a two-thirds vote of each house of the Legislature.
The state Constitution contains complex formulas that establish state budget priorities.
K-14 education is guaranteed a minimum level of funding. (Proposition 98 of 1988)
Some state revenues must be set aside to pay down debts and save for a rainy day. (Proposition 2 of 2014)
The budget process is cyclical, not linear.

Decisions are made throughout the year, both in public settings and behind the scenes.
Navigating the State Budget Process

Each year the Governor and Legislature work to craft the state’s spending plan. While the January-to-June period gets the most attention, the process of developing the budget is an ongoing enterprise, giving Californians ample opportunity to stay engaged and involved year-round.

The Governor

The Governor has the lead role in developing the state budget. Each year the Governor proposes a spending plan, which is introduced as the budget bill in the Legislature. The Governor can sign or veto the budget bill passed by legislators as well as other bills in the budget package that make policy changes related to the budget. The Governor can also reduce or eliminate individual appropriations using the line-item veto.

The Legislature

The Legislature – made up of the Assembly and Senate – reviews the Governor’s proposed budget and crafts its own version of the spending plan. The Legislature can maintain, modify, or reject the Governor’s proposals, with review occurring through each house’s budget committee and related subcommittees. The Legislature must pass the budget bill, but not other bills in the budget package, by June 15. The Legislature can override a Governor’s veto by a two-thirds vote of each house.

The Public

The public has various opportunities for input during the budget process. Members of the public can meet with officials from the Governor’s administration and with legislators and their staffs, testify before budget committees and subcommittees, and write letters of support and opposition. Through individual engagement or as part of coalitions, members of the public can express their budget priorities and areas of concern.

In the months following the release of the Governor’s proposed budget, members of the public can submit letters of support/opposition to budget subcommittees, meet with budget subcommittee staff and legislative leadership staff, and get involved with coalitions.

By January 10: Governor releases proposed budget for next fiscal year, which begins on July 1

By January 15: Legislature must pass a balanced budget

By May 14: Governor releases revised budget proposal (“May Revision”)

Mid-May to early June: State Assembly and Senate review the May Revision and move toward finalizing their versions of the budget in subcommittee hearings. A legislative conference committee may meet to resolve differences.

By June 15: Legislature must pass a balanced budget

Mid-May to early June: Officials from the Governor’s administration testify at legislative hearings.

July 1: Start of the state fiscal year

Early June: Legislative leaders and Governor meet to address outstanding issues.

By June 15: Legislature may override vetoes by a two-thirds vote of each house.

Budget goes to Governor: Governor signs budget package and may issue vetoes.

After Governor signs budget: Legislature may override vetoes by a two-thirds vote of each house.

After the release of the Governor’s proposed budget, members of the public can submit letters of support/opposition to budget subcommittees, meet with budget subcommittee staff and legislative leadership staff, and get involved with coalitions.

As the Governor’s proposed budget for the next fiscal year is being developed, members of the public can meet with officials from the Governor’s administration to share budget priorities and discuss areas of concern.

Summer to fall is also a good time for members of the public to get to know key legislative staff, educate them on particular issues, and suggest ideas that deserve a hearing in the year ahead.

July and following: Legislative leaders develop their budget priorities for the coming fiscal year. State departments and agencies develop budget proposals for the coming fiscal year and submit them to the Department of Finance (DOF) for review. Following a series of meetings, the Governor makes final decisions and the DOF prepares the proposed budget for release in January.

Fall: Legislative leaders develop their budget priorities for the coming fiscal year.

January to mid-May:

Officials from the Governor’s administration explain and defend the proposed budget at legislative hearings and develop the May Revision.
