California’s state budget is actually a budget “package.”
The budget package consists of one or more budget bills plus budget-related trailer bills.

There is no limit on the number of trailer bills that may be included.
The 34 Bills in the 2017-18 Budget Package (So Far)

- AB 97: The initial 2017-18 budget bill

- AB 109, AB 120, AB 134, SB 108, and SB 113: Additional budget bills that amended the initial 2017-18 budget bill

- SB 107: Another budget bill that amended the 2016-17 budget bill

- Other bills in the budget package: AB 99, AB 102, AB 103, AB 107, AB 111, AB 114, AB 115, AB 119, AB 126, AB 129, AB 130, AB 131, AB 133, AB 135, SB 84, SB 85, SB 88, SB 89, SB 90, SB 92, SB 94, SB 96, SB 97, SB 103, SB 110, SB 112, and SB 117
The Constitutional Framework for the State Budget Process
California’s Constitution establishes the basic rules of the state budget process.
US Constitution
- Roughly 7,800 words

Several ballot measures, dating back to the 1970s, have had an impact on the budget and the budget process.
Ballot Measures With an Impact on the State Budget and the Budget Process

- Prop. 13 1978
- Prop. 4 1979
- Prop. 98 1988
- Prop. 54 2016
- Prop. 55 2016
- Prop. 1A 2004

- Prop. 22 2010
- Prop. 2 2014
- California Budget and the Budget Process
The state Constitution sets two budget-related deadlines: January 10 and June 15.
Bills must be published, in their final form, at least 72 hours before being passed by the Legislature. (Proposition 54 of 2016)
The budget bill and most budget-related bills can be passed by a simple majority vote.
(Prop. 25 of 2010)
A supermajority (two-thirds) vote is needed to approve any tax increase.
(Prop. 26 of 2010)
Prop. 26 added this key phrase to the state Constitution:

“All change in state statute which results in any taxpayer paying a higher tax” requires a two-thirds vote of each house of the Legislature.
The state Constitution contains complex formulas that establish state budget priorities.
Three Key Budget Formulas in the State Constitution

- Prop. 98 (1988):
  - Guarantees a minimum level of funding for K-12 schools and community colleges.

- Prop. 2 (2014):
  - Requires some state revenues to be set aside to pay down debts and save for a rainy day.

- Prop. 55 (2016):
  - Creates a formula to boost funding for Medi-Cal, which provides health care services for low-income residents.
The State Budget Process: Key Players and Timeline
The budget process is cyclical.

Decisions are made throughout the year, both in public settings and behind the scenes.
Navigating the State Budget Process

Each year the Governor and Legislature work to craft the state’s spending plan. While the January-to-June period gets the most attention, the process of developing the budget is an ongoing enterprise, giving Californians ample opportunity to stay engaged and involved year-round.

The Governor

The Governor has the lead role in developing the state budget. Each year the Governor proposes a spending plan, which is introduced as the budget bill in the Legislature. The Governor can sign or veto the budget bill passed by legislators as well as other bills in the budget package that make policy changes related to the budget. The Governor can also reduce or eliminate individual appropriations using the line-item veto.

The Legislature

The Legislature – made up of the Assembly and Senate – reviews the Governor’s proposed budget and crafts its own version of the spending plan. The Legislature can maintain, modify, or reject the Governor’s proposals, with review occurring through each house’s budget committee and related subcommittees. The Legislature must pass the budget bill, but not other bills in the budget package, by June 15. The Legislature can override a Governor’s veto by a two-thirds vote of each house.

The Public

The public has various opportunities for input during the budget process. Members of the public can meet with officials from the Governor’s administration and with legislators and their staffs, testify before budget committees and subcommittees, and write letters of support and opposition. Through individual engagement or as part of coalitions, members of the public can express their budget priorities and areas of concern.

In the months following the release of the Governor’s proposed budget, members of the public can submit letters of support/opposition to budget subcommittees, meet with budget subcommittee staff and legislative leadership staff, and get involved with coalitions.

---

As the Governor’s proposed budget for the next fiscal year is being developed, members of the public can meet with officials from the Governor’s administration to share budget priorities and discuss areas of concern.

---

Summer to fall is also a good time for members of the public to get to know key legislative staff, educate them on particular issues, and suggest ideas that deserve a hearing in the year ahead.

---

By January 10: Governor releases proposed budget for next fiscal year, which begins on July 1

---

By January 15: Legislature must pass a balanced budget

---

By May 14: Governor releases revised budget proposal ("May Revision")

---

By June 15: Legislative leaders develop their budget priorities for the coming fiscal year.

---

Mid-May to early June: State Assembly and Senate review the May Revision and move toward finalizing their versions of the budget in subcommittee hearings. A legislative conference committee may meet to resolve differences.

---

After Governor signs budget: Legislature may override vetoes by a two-thirds vote of each house.

---

Mid-May to early June: Officials from the Governor’s administration testify at legislative hearings.

---

Budget goes to Governor: Governor signs budget package and may issue vetoes.

---

January to mid-May: Officials from the Governor’s administration explain and defend the proposed budget at legislative hearings and develop the May Revision.

---

January to mid-May: Full budget committees along with subcommittees in the state Assembly and Senate review the Governor’s proposed budget and begin to craft their versions of the annual spending plan.

July 1: Start of the state fiscal year

---

July and following: State departments and agencies develop budget proposals for the coming fiscal year and submit them to the Department of Finance (DOF) for review. Following a series of meetings, the Governor makes final decisions and the DOF prepares the proposed budget for release in January.

---

Fall: Legislative leaders develop their budget priorities for the coming fiscal year.

---

Mid-May to early June: Officials from the Governor’s administration testify at legislative hearings.

---

Early June: Legislative leaders and Governor meet to address outstanding issues.

---

Budget goes to Governor: Governor signs budget package and may issue vetoes.

---

Summer to fall: State departments and agencies develop budget proposals for the coming fiscal year and submit them to the Department of Finance (DOF) for review. Following a series of meetings, the Governor makes final decisions and the DOF prepares the proposed budget for release in January.
