California’s state budget is actually a budget “package.”
The budget package consists of one or more budget bills plus budget-related trailer bills.

There is no limit on the number of trailer bills that may be included.
The 34 Bills in the 2017-18 Budget Package (So Far)

• AB 97: The initial 2017-18 budget bill

• AB 109, AB 120, AB 134, SB 108, and SB 113: Additional budget bills that amended the initial 2017-18 budget bill

• Other bills in the budget package: AB 99, AB 102, AB 103, AB 107, AB 111, AB 114, AB 115, AB 119, AB 126, AB 129, AB 130, AB 131, AB 133, AB 135, SB 84, SB 85, SB 88, SB 89, SB 90, SB 92, SB 94, SB 96, SB 97, SB 103, SB 110, SB 112, and SB 117
The Constitutional Framework for the State Budget Process
California’s Constitution establishes the basic rules of the state budget process.

Several ballot measures, dating back to the 1970s, have had an impact on the budget and the budget process.
Ballot Measures With an Impact on the State Budget and the Budget Process

- Prop. 13 1978
- Prop. 4 1979
- Prop. 98 1988
- Prop. 1A 2004
- Prop. 55 2016
- Prop. 54 2016
- Prop. 2 2014
- Prop. 26 2010
- Prop. 25 2010
- Prop. 22 2010
The state Constitution sets two budget-related deadlines: January 10 and June 15.
Bills must be published, in their final form, at least 72 hours before being passed by the Legislature. (Proposition 54 of 2016)
The budget bill and most budget-related bills can be passed by a simple majority vote. (Prop. 25 of 2010)
A supermajority (two-thirds) vote is needed to approve any tax increase. (Prop. 26 of 2010)
Prop. 26 added this key phrase to the state Constitution:

“Any change in state statute which results in any taxpayer paying a higher tax” requires a two-thirds vote of each house of the Legislature.
The state Constitution contains complex formulas that establish state budget priorities.
Three Key Budget Formulas in the State Constitution

• Prop. 98 (1988):
  — Guarantees a minimum level of funding for K-12 schools and community colleges.

• Prop. 2 (2014):
  — Requires some state revenues to be set aside to pay down debts and save for a rainy day.

• Prop. 55 (2016):
  — Creates a formula to boost funding for Medi-Cal, which provides health care services for low-income residents.
The State Budget Process: Key Players and Timeline
The budget process is cyclical.

Decisions are made throughout the year, both in public settings and behind the scenes.
Navigating the State Budget Process

Each year the Governor and Legislature work to craft the state’s spending plan. While the January-to-June period gets the most attention, the process of developing the budget is an ongoing enterprise, giving Californians ample opportunity to stay engaged and involved year-round.

The Governor
The Governor has the lead role in developing the state budget. Each year the Governor proposes a spending plan, which is introduced as the budget bill in the Legislature. The Governor can sign or veto the budget bill passed by legislators as well as other bills in the budget package that make policy changes related to the budget. The Governor can also reduce or eliminate individual appropriations using the line-item veto.

The Legislature
The Legislature – made up of the Assembly and Senate – reviews the Governor’s proposed budget and crafts its own version of the spending plan. The Legislature can maintain, modify, or reject the Governor’s proposals, with review occurring through each house’s budget committee and related subcommittees. The Legislature must pass the budget bill, but not other bills in the budget package, by June 15. The Legislature can override a Governor’s veto by a two-thirds vote of each house.

The Public
The public has various opportunities for input during the budget process. Members of the public can meet with officials from the Governor’s administration and with legislators and their staffs, testify at budget hearings and related subcommittees, and write letters of support and opposition. Through individual engagement or as part of coalitions, members of the public can express their budget priorities and areas of concern.

As the Governor’s proposed budget for the next fiscal year is being developed, members of the public can meet with officials from the Governor’s administration to share budget priorities and discuss areas of concern.

Summer to fall is also a good time for members of the public to get to know key legislative staff, educate them on particular issues, and suggest ideas that deserve a hearing in the year ahead.

In the months following the release of the Governor’s proposed budget, members of the public can submit letters of support/opposition to budget subcommittees, meet with budget subcommittee staff and legislative leadership staff, and get involved with coalitions.
